

Key to the Rockies Employee Seasonal Promotion Agreement

This is to acknowledge that you have received $419.00 for the express purpose of purchasing a ski pass for the 2007/2008 season. The ski pass is given to you for promotional purposes so that you may keep abreast of the current snow conditions and better market properties in our ski area. In the event you do not work a full season with Key to the Rockies, a prorated portion of your ski pass will be deducted from your last paycheck. Proration will be calculated based on the following date range:

November 16, 2007 – April 15, 2008.

Please contact the controller with any questions you may have.

Dear Employee,

Please read and sign the ski pass waiver. It is written as a promotion so that I don't have to tax it on your paychecks. Once you have signed the agreement, please put in my box and I will give you your check. Let me know if you have any questions.

Thanks,

Andrea
